

WOMEN in MANAGEMENT

Empowering the Women of USC since 1979

Gender Wage Gap

Sabrina Pasztor, Assistant Professor of Clinical Business
Communications at the Marshall School of Business
UPC WIM Professional Development

In spite of equity in education and experience between men and women, a wage gap still exists. Dr. Pasztor will share her research and recommendations to shift policy.

Women in Management (WIM) was formed in 1979 in response to the need for an organization for women in leadership positions at USC, and to address the issues of increased representation of women in responsible positions, equal pay for men and women holding similar positions, and the provision of a forum in which women could develop leadership skills. The purpose of the organization remains to provide a forum for communication, professional development, and career opportunities for women at USC.
